

I do not want the no-call privacy law lessened. We have a night worker in our household and having the phone ring is bad, but if it is an unsolicited sales call, that was more than just annoying. The law is one of the better things accomplished by legislation...don't mess it up.